

A LEVEL POLITICS STUDENT CONFERENCE

Coalition Politics: The Future?

November 28 2011 (C414) in Central London
Conference starts at 1100 and ends no later than 1630

Key questions for our speakers:

- John Bercow MP, Speaker of the House of Commons
Restoring the reputation of Parliament - what progress?
- Alan Duncan MP, Minister for International Development
Crises on many fronts? Is the coalition just plain bogged-down?
- David Blunkett, MP
Labour's future prospects - a verdict on Labour on the opposition benches!
- Simon Hughes MP, Deputy Leader, Liberal Democrats
Can the Lib Dems ever recover from the high-risk coalition roller coaster?
- Sir George Young MP, Leader of the House of Commons
Is Parliament stronger or weaker under the coalition? Future plans for reform?
- Nigel Farage MEP, Leader UKIP
What is the role of UKIP? Can it hope to exercise any direct influence in Westminster? Can it ever elect a Westminster MP?
- Caroline Lucas MP, Leader of the Green Party in Parliament
The Greens in Westminster - what impact can a single MP make?
- Tony Benn
Does Labour need an urgent/radical policy rethink? Is the new leadership up to the task of developing the new ideas?
